GUARDS ON FOOD SHIP FOR CORK

British Armed Men Board
Honolulu From New York
at Queenstown

PEACE IS REMOTE

Lloyd George Refuses to Consider Withdrawal of Home Rule Bill—
Another Ambush Reported

Dublin, Ireland, Jan. 10.—On the arrival at Queenstown yesterday from New York of the American steamer Honolulu, with a cargo of provisions on board for the relief of the unemployed of Cork, the authorities placed an armed guard on the vessel. Notwithstanding the protest of the captain, the guard remained on the steamer when it proceeded for Cork.

More than 100 tons of supplies for the sufferers from the recent fires and disorders in Cork were shipped on board the Honolulu, which left New York December 23. The supplies were sent by Irish relief committees in Philadelphia, New York and other cities.

All negotiations looking to peace in Ireland have been broken down, it reports in official circles are to be expected. Definite information is lacking, but it is said that Premier Lloyd George has refused to consider the Sinn Féin proposal for the withdrawal of the Home Rule Bill.

Officials here take a gloomy view of the situation. The increased activity recently on the part of the military and naval forces in the martial law areas is considered as indicating an extension of guerrilla warfare.

Troops at Derry today surrounded the residence of Joseph O'Doherty, Sinn Féin member of Parliament, and arrested him. He will be interned. Two previous raids on his home were without result.

Raid on rate collectors, the latest form of Sinn Féin activity, are becoming increasingly common. Six are reported in the county of Wexford.

It is rumored here that Crown forces have been rushed at Dunboyne County Meath, on the border of Dublin county. The dispatch adds that the operations appear to have been extended over a wide area, from Leixlip in the east, through Celbridge, Maynooth and Kildare, to all of which places road bridges are reported to have been destroyed, to Batterstown in the west.

There has been no official confirmation of the rumors, as all the wires in the district concerned have been cut.

The first candidate publicly to offer himself for election to the Southern Irish Parliament is Lord DeVis, son-in-law of George J. Gould, and a representative peer in the British House of Lords, who has written a letter for publication tomorrow in the Irish newspapers in which he admits that the Home Rule act is far from perfect but says "it represents a gift of self-government which is ours for the asking."

Expressing the belief that the Home Rule act can be made still better, Lord DeVis announces his purpose of asking some Southern Irish constituency to elect him a member of the Southern Parliament.

Lord Mayor O'Callaghan was welcomed to New York, Jan. 10.—Daniel O'Callaghan, Lord Mayor of Cork, who entered the United States at Newport News, Va., January 4, arrived here yesterday and was greeted by crowds of "Irish republic" sympathizers. Accompanying O'Callaghan was Peter MacSwiney, brother of Cork's late Lord Mayor; Harry Boland, secretary to Eamon de Valera, and acting Mayor Gannon and Deputy Mayor Mulcahy, of Jersey City.

Hundreds crowded into the Pennsylvania Station to greet the Lord Mayor. Fifty police reserves were detailed to handle the crowds. When O'Callaghan appeared from the train after a prolonged welcome was accorded.

Class Initiation

125 Receive K. of C. Third Degree—
C. M. Horgan Presented With Watch Fob

Yesterday afternoon at 2:30, Fitzgerald Council No. 459, K. of C., initiated 125 members in the third degree, at Elks Hall. Members of the order came from Philadelphia, Baltimore, Richmond, Staunton and elsewhere to witness the impressive ceremonies. The degree work was conducted by State Deputy Maurice McAuliffe and Past State Deputy Leo Rover, of Washington. Assisting in the conferring of the degree were Richard Norton, of Baltimore, State Deputy John J. Blake, of Richmond, and District Deputy William Woods, of Alexandria. At the conclusion of the initiatory work, a farewell reception was given to C. M. Horgan, retiring grand knight, who leaves for Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where he has accepted a lucrative position. The degree team was composed of nearly 30 members of the order, who performed their work with remarkable efficiency. Over a hundred members were initiated, and it is estimated that about four hundred were present. The reception committee deserves great credit for the manner in which they performed their duties.

The committee on degree were M. T. Greene, E. E. Downham, Jr., and R. Norris Roland.

C. M. Horgan, the retiring grand knight, was presented with a handsome diamond studded K. of C. emblem the gift of the local council. A speech of thanks was made by Mr. Horgan. Mr. Horgan will leave tonight for Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Dies Suddenly

John C. Marscher Stricken While on Street Car

John C. Marscher, fifty-nine years old, employed in Washington as an auditor, was taken ill while on an electric train bound for Washington this morning and he was removed from the train and taken to the office of Dr. Walter Warfield and rushed to the Alexandria Hospital where he died a few minutes afterward. Heart trouble is thought to have been the cause of death.

The deceased lived at 619 South Lee street.

Legion Park Site

Don't Want Camp Lee Entirely Dismantled and Forgotten

The Richmond Post of the American Legion with which the Military Order of the World War probably will co-operate, will endeavor to persuade the War Department to dedicate a tract of several acres of Camp Lee, which is to be dismantled, for a park. This great military establishment should be preserved to some extent, the legion declares.

The site chosen by the legion for preservation includes the headquarters, hostess house and the quarters of the English and French commissions. Efforts were being made yesterday by R. Allen Ammons, vice-commander of the Richmond post, to call a joint meeting immediately of the officials of the legion and representatives of the Military Order of the World War to take the matter under consideration.

Orders have been issued by the War Department to dismantle the camp and dispose of the land and equipment. Camp Lee, which was constructed in 1917, was the most costly of all cantonment camps in the United States. It was equipped with a lighting system, sewerage and transportation facilities, and was the camp where the famous Eighteenth Division was trained.

Many men famous in the history of the war have visited Camp Lee, and it is to commemorate their presence on Virginia soil and to honor the thousands of heroes who were trained to military service in the cantonment that the War Department will be asked to preserve the tract. The idea of a park is favored.

FOURTEEN TRUE BILLS

Five For Prohibition and Five For Selling Extracts—Variety of Other Cases

A grand jury in the corporation court today, Judge Robinson Moncure presiding in its report to the court said it had been brought to the attention of the jury that a nuisance exists at the moving picture establishments of the city by children begging patrons for money, in front of the theatres and the jury recommended that the matter be brought to the attention of the police department and steps taken to correct the evil.

The jury returned fourteen true bills out of fifteen indictments presented two of the indictments being against merchants who it is charged illegally sell extracts.

The other indictments returned by the jury follow: Arthur Burgess, bigamy; Samuel Sutton, violating the prohibition law; George Robinson, violating the prohibition law; Fannie Sutton, violating the prohibition law; Eugene Conway, violating the prohibition law; Alfred De W. Peters, shooting John Quill; William Colbert, grand larceny; Edward Haley, violating the prohibition law; James Treake, violating the prohibition law.

INDICT 2 FOR DISTRIBUTING BIRTH CONTROL LITERATURE

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 10.—Indictments charging a conspiracy to use the mails to defraud in connection with the alleged distribution of birth control literature among women students of the University of California, were returned by the Federal grand jury yesterday against Dr. Waldo Richardson, of Fair Oaks, Sacramento county, and his wife, Mrs. O. B. Richardson.

Federal officials said the Richardsons, who were arrested once before in connection with the alleged distribution of similar literature, were agents of a Kansas City concern.

Firebugs At Work

Start Two Fires Last Night Two Hours Apart

Two fires thought to have been of incendiary origin last night occurred within two hours of each other. The first blaze at 9 o'clock partially destroyed an unoccupied frame dwelling house, 310 Wolfe street, the property of Mrs. George Hornburn.

The second alarm at 11 o'clock was caused by a blaze in the two story frame school building, formerly used by colored girls, located on the east side of Alfred between Princess and Oronoco streets. The firemen by prompt action saved the structure from destruction. One side, however, was badly burned. This building was abandoned by the school authorities after the new school for colored children was erected.

Fire Chief O'Brien announces the offer of a $50 reward for the capture and conviction of the parties guilty of starting the fires.

Grooming For Primary

P. F. Gorman to Fill Unexpired Term in Tax Office—Many to Enter Primary

P. F. Gorman, Jr., deputy city tax collector, is expected will be elected by city council tomorrow night to fill the unexpired term of his father, the late P. F. Gorman. It is understood that he will be unopposed.

A primary will be held next summer to elect a successor to Mr. Gorman.

Candidates already are grooming for the office. The names of P. F. Gorman, Jr., Fred Birrell, Edward J. Fleming, George S. French and Charles Duffey already have been mentioned as possible candidates in the primary.

RED CROSS APPROPRIATES 5 MILLION FOR EUROPEANS

Washington, Jan. 10.—The American Red Cross executive committee has appropriated $5,000,000 from the society's reserve fund to carry out its program of furnishing desperately needed medical assistance for children in Europe.

In making this announcement last night, Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the central committee of the Red Cross, said the scope of the society's relief operations in Europe was being altered to the end that it might be confined almost entirely to this work.

"The work which the American Red Cross aims specially to carry on is in the interest of children who require medical care," said Dr. Farrand, "and should not be confused with that of feeding several millions of children who are not afflicted by disease but who are threatened by starvation. The general feeding problem is to be met by the European Relief Council, composed of eight leading relief organizations."

"Nearly twenty child relief units of the American Red Cross are already in the field, Dr. Farrand said, most of them in Poland and ultimately there will be at least a hundred. Plans for the work embrace the Baltic states and to a certain extent, Austria and Hungary, as well as Poland and adjacent countries and Yugoslavia. The general plan of organizing the units provides for a doctor, several nurses and a trained social worker for each unit. Wherever possible local personnel will be utilized.

Take Cases Up

About 25 out 125 Protest Cases
Taken Under Adversity by Court

Cases of 125 protest owners whose assessment was raised by the local board of tax review over the assessment made by Messrs. George S. French and Frank J. Pollard are being heard today in the corporation court before Judge Robinson Moncure. Judge Moncure will take all of the cases on which there was a protest under advisement and will within the next few days announce his decision in these cases.

About twenty-five persons either appeared in person or were represented by counsel to protest the increase. Commonwealth's attorney Howard W. Smith represented the state. Two members of the board of tax review, E. E. Lawler and James R. Caton were in attendance.

The hearing of the cases was in progress when this report closed. The increase on property where no contest was made will stand.

MODERN ENOCH ARDEN ASKS ADDRESS OF SON

Orange, N. J., Jan. 10.—Mrs. Barker Pierson, of this city, yesterday announced that her first husband, Charles Topps, who she thought had been dead nearly fourteen years, suddenly had confronted her yesterday to ask the address of their son.

In 1907 the body of a man, some of whose personal effects she then Mrs. Topps identified as those of her husband, was found in a Morristown mill pond. Because of the condition of the body, she had been advised not to view it, she said.

Five years later she married again. Her first son now is in the navy, she said, and a second, by her second husband, was found in a Morristown mill pond. Because of the condition of the body, she had been advised not to view it, she said.

CROWD AT MATTICE TO GREET AIRMEN

dians and Natives Await

DUE AT POST TUESDAY

Naval Inquiry Court May Be Convened at Washington—Kloor's
Story Eagerly Read

Mattice, Ont., Jan. 10.—Lieut. McLaughlin, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who is here with official messages from the Canadian and United States governments for Lieuts. Hinton, Kloor and Farrell yesterday returned from a trip down the Mattice trail without word of the three officers. He reported the trail in good shape and said that the party ought to arrive here by Tuesday at the latest.

This is also the opinion of the Factor Mavor of the Hudson Bay post on the Great Whale River, who is waiting here to go back to Moose Factory with the dogs, which are bringing in the American officers.

In consequence of these views Mattice, whose population has been almost doubled in the past day or two by an influx of thirty correspondents, motion picture men and operators, much to the amusement and wonderment of the natives, is at high pitch of excitement, and the runners who were sent out last Thursday to meet the three airmen and hasten back with the news of their approach are expected here early today.

A court of inquiry will be convened shortly by the Navy Department to investigate the circumstances connected with the thrilling flight of the storm-driven naval balloon from Rock away to the shores of James Bay, it was stated at the department last night.

It is not known as yet what will be the pretext to the court, but as in the cases of the loss of a ship, accident to a ship or other emergency happenings not on the program, the inquiry into the wild experience of Lieuts. Hinton, Kloor and Farrell will involve how the balloon was handled, the conduct of the crew in the emergency, the conditions under which the descent was made and the lessons gained from the incident.

The inquiry of course, is proposed as an entirely friendly one and the three officers will be the principal witnesses. There is no fear that their testimony will show other than that the traditions, rules and regulations of the service were carried out to the letter.

It is expected, however, that Lieut. Farrell may take notice of any reflections which are cast upon his part in the adventure in some of the interpretations placed upon Lieut. Hinton's letter to his wife, published yesterday. It was stated by naval officials that this would not necessarily be a part of the proceedings before the court of inquiry, but if Lieut. Farrell feels he has been aggrieved it is his privilege, as in the Admiral Schley case, to demand a special court of inquiry of his own to vindicate his record from any aspersion.

Secretary Daniels would say nothing whatever on this phase of the case, out high officers in the service privately express full confidence that the official reports of Lieutenants Kloor, who started out as commander of the party, and Hinton, who automatically assumed command when the craft got in distress, will show Lieut. Farrell to have measured up to all naval traditions in the party's narrow escape from death.

It is apparent, though, that if the statements about Lieut. Farrell are not explained, they, on their face may be regarded as an attack on an officer on the most delicate question, his bravery. The same is true of the

Dog Taxes

Must be Paid Prior to February 1—
Penalty of $5 to $100 for Delinquents

To avoid penalties, prosecutions, and inconveniences, parties owning dogs should pay the license tax thereon before February 1. Notices have been sent broadcast by the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, which enforces the law thru its wardens, advising the public that the tax is due and payable or before that date; and its wardens have been instructed to rigidly enforce the law. The tax is $1 on males and spayed females, and $3 on unspayed females. A tax of $10 is levied on kennels in which not more than 12 dogs are kept while upon payment of a tax of $15, a person may keep in a kennel, as many dogs as he may desire. Dogs are taxable when four months of age, and the law provides that there can be no reduction in the tax for any fractional part of a year. Dogs becoming four months of age at any time after February 1 are liable for the tax.

Persons are held responsible for the taxes on dogs owned by them, under their control, or kept on premises on which they reside. Failure to pay the tax is punishable with a fine of not less than $5 nor more $100, together with all costs incident to the prosecution. The killing of a dog on which the tax has not been paid does not relieve the person owning or controlling same from payment of such fine as may be imposed by the courts.

The tax must be paid to the treasurer of the county, city, or town in which the owner of the dog resides. Tax must be worn at all times, except when dogs are actually being hunted and are accompanied by the owner or his agent. The statute makes an outlaw of the sheepskilling dog, making it the duty of wardens and the privilege of any person to kill such dog on sight.

Pay your dog taxes before February 1.

Successful Affair

Community Social Saturday Well-Attended

The first community social of the new year at the Westminster Building was a decided success although the attendance was visibly affected by the vacation. The Christian Endeavor Society of the Second Presbyterian Church was in charge of the social and the committee kept things moving nicely throughout the evening.

Miss Martha Allison, chairman of the social committee of the society was in charge of the reception and entertainment features, and Miss Cora Cochran was in charge of the refreshments. The interdenominational spirit of the social was clearly in evidence in the serving of the refreshments when it was observed that ladies representing five different denominations were serving at the same time.

The new moving picture machine of the Y. M. C. A. was used for the first time and several reels were shown at the close of the social. The machine worked perfectly and greatly delighted the crowd. It is to be used each Saturday evening. The social will be held next Saturday evening from 7:30 to 10:00 o'clock and will probably be continued indefinitely.

PETITION WITH I. C. C.

Lauck Asks Repair Work Is Being Done at Private Plants at Big Cost—Declares Public Is "Looted"

Washington, Jan. 10.—W. Jeff Lauck, representing the International Association of Machinists, in a petition filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, charges that the railroad corporations are "milking" the national treasury of $750,000,000 this year and are manipulating the funds received in a campaign to drive the railroad brotherhoods out of business.

In the petition, made public here last night in behalf of William H. Lauck, president of the machinists' organization of 400,000 members, a request is made for an immediate inquiry into the situation described, an inquiry in which shippers and farmers will be asked to join.

The petition charges the big carriers, especially those supposed to be affiliated in a financial way with J. P. Morgan & Co., are closing their repair shops, throwing thousands of men out of work and are giving incentive and freight car repair work at excessive rates, to large private equipment companies in which railroad capitalists or banking groups are heavily interested. More than 50,000 men already have lost their jobs, it is complained, and are relying on the shops only upon resuming their union work.

In this fashion, it is charged, railroad managements hope to drive the unions on the rocks and charge the bill to the public through taxation to pay the subsidies guaranteed by the Federal Government or by maintaining present high rates to shippers and the traveling public.

This drive on organized railroad workers, it is charged further, is but a phase of the "open shop" movement which has for its real object disruption of all legitimate labor organizations and trade union agreements.

Evidence of its scope has been discussed; the petition points out, as:

1. The wreck of the Interborough World Movement, because it dared to advocate collective bargaining in the United States Steel Corporation, an enterprise affiliated with J. P. Morgan & Co.

2. Recent revelations before the Lockwood committee in New York to the effect that the United States and Bethlehem Steel Corporations refused to furnish fabricated steel to construction companies in New York city employing members of labor unions.

3. The recent refusal of the anthracite coal companies, controlled by Morgan & Co., to grant complete union recognition to mine workers.

4. The present deplorable situation in Mines and McDowell counties, West Virginia, and in the Birmingham district of Alabama, where there has been a complete breakdown in civil government, due to the refusal of the steel and coal companies, dominated by the United States Steel Corporation, to grant to the coal miners the right of collective bargaining. It is pointed out in the petition that the railroads, while proceeding under Government guarantee of fair earnings, are assigning their repair work on locomotives and freight cars to private companies, which they are promoting as heavy money makers. Since the public ultimately pays the bill for all transportation, it is added, this practice means that the public is being THRIFT IN THE FAMILY. If there is one part of the family that might be termed an American failing, and national in its prevalence, it is that of extravagance, of living up to one's income, or beyond; of failure to economize and put a little aside each year for a rainy day. We are a nation of spend-thrifts. One of the greatest lessons of the war was the necessity forced upon each individual to deny himself something, not only of luxury, but often of the comforts that had hitherto been deemed necessities. That he might help out his country. Little children bought war-savings stamps and the grown-ups bought war bonds. Growing out of the war has come a custom of advertising in the daily papers by the banks, advocating thrift, and the opening of a savings-account. These advertisements are skillfully worded and are bound to have an effect. We feel confident that the generation now growing up will have a larger per capita savings in the years to come than ever before in our history. But we feel that the advice given by the banks and savings institutions should be universally aided and supplemented in the family. Every parent should see to it that his children are taught economy. He should likewise enforce the preaching by his own practice. Start a child in the right direction and it will be easy to follow it in later years. We have most excellent institutions in Alexandria in which savings may be placed with absolute security, and we can urge no better advice upon our readers who have children, than to start them with a savings bank account, no matter how small. Promise to add a certain amount when it has reached a stated figure, and watch the ingenuity with which the youngster will devise means to increase his bank balance. The habit thus formed will be invaluable throughout life, and may well all the difference between failure and success.

FORECAST OF BUSINESS FOR 1921. The various financial journals, bankers, and experts all over the country are optimistic in their predictions for business for 1921. The spirit breathed in their prophetic utterances is that of sincerity and genuine conviction. They are not talking merely as a boy whistles to keep up his courage in the dark. They give the reasons for their opinions and it must be admitted that their arguments are sound and logical. The whole world needs the products of the miller factories in the United States.

Prices are returning to a normal level, which indicates a healthy relationship between supply and demand. Our country is equipped for this important development of an enormous export trade, and is the only country so happily situated. It will take Europe many years, at least, to recover her pre-war status in industry, and her only supply market for raw material and manufactured goods is the United States. We are inclined to agree with President Wilson and Secretary Houston as to the revival of the War Finance Corporation. But whether that institution succeeds or not, we firmly believe that the natural genius of our business men, our manufacturers, and our bankers, will devise ways and means to a brilliant and successful solution of our various problems in trade, foreign and domestic, today. We amazed an incredulous world in our war activities. We accomplished the impossible. We astonished even the doubting Thomases at home. But that is the real American spirit. The word "placidity" is not in any true American's dictionary. Those who are pessimistic today—who see only through a glass, darkly—had better for their reputation, remain silent. We predict that the United States is going to surpass all other war records in its marvelous achievements in the world of commerce the next few years.

TO MAKE HIGHWAYS SAFE FOR TRAVEL

In Virginia Will Mark With Road Light-houses

TO MARK DANGER SPOT

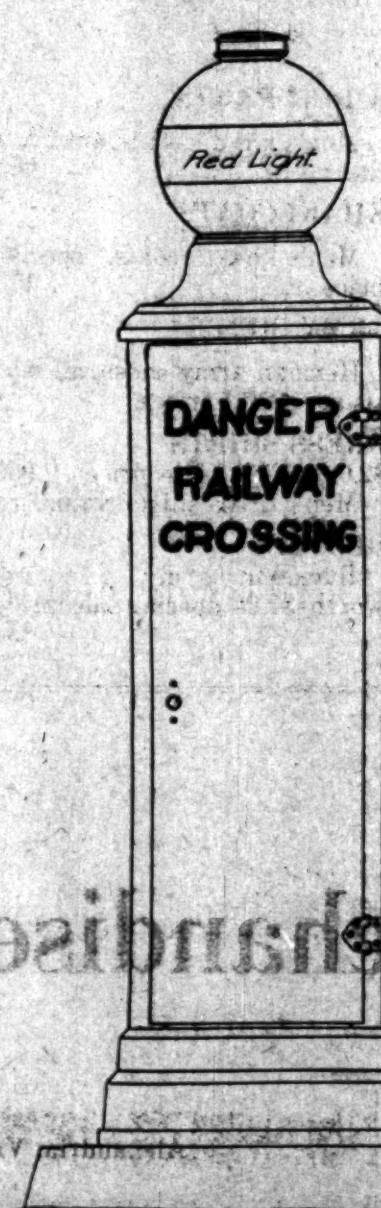

Will Flash at Intervall Warning of Traffic Dangers Which the Ahead To Be Installed Free

Richmond, Va., Jan. 10.—Virginia State Highways are to be made safe for travel. Sharp curves, railroad crossings and other dangerous sections of roads are to be marked with lead lighthouses. George P. Coleman, State Highway Commissioner, is now completing arrangements for the installation of the lighthouses on every road embraced within the State Highway system. A few of the light houses have already been installed as an experiment. Hundreds of others are to be placed along the highways as soon as arrangements now under consideration are completed.

Road lighthouses are a decided innovation in properly marking danger spots in public roads. Placed so as to warn the public day and night of dangerous curves and railroad crossings, accidents on Virginia highways should be reduced to a minimum. The lighthouses will first be placed along the Washington, Richmond Highway, and in the vicinity of Newport News and Norfolk and along other roads over which traffic is heavy.

The road lighthouse operates on the same principle as lighthouses at sea, flashing at intervals warnings to traffic of dangers which lie ahead. Acetylene gas, placed in a large holder, which requires filling once a year, illuminates the lighthouses. The lighthouse works automatically, flashing certain colors as occasion requires. The flashing of a red light will indicate absolute danger to the autoist, such as a railroad crossing or an extremely dangerous section of road ahead. Yellow will indicate a curve ahead, with an arrow indicating the direction the curves takes, while a green light will warn of traffic congestion and the need of proceeding cautiously.

The light houses are being installed free of cost to the State by the American Gas Association Company. Under the proposed arrangement, the company reserves two sides of the light house for advertising purposes. The advertising, however, must be approved by the Highway Department, which also reserves the right to discontinue the lighthouse at any time. The light-

ABOUT THE YEAR EAST

(Communicated)

To the Editor:—I have just read the article in the Alexandria Gazette of the 10th inst. about the year in the East. Just at this time when the eyes of the world are focused upon the Near East, it is a privilege to learn inner facts from one personally familiar with conditions there.

Mr. George M. Lamsa has recently published a small pamphlet, "Life in The Harem," which discloses some strange and horrible customs.

The author, in a simple and convincing way, describes facts as he saw them, and which has inspired him to prepare himself to return as a missionary to his own grief-stricken land.

He has been much impressed with the status of woman here and it has given birth to an eager desire to do something to alleviate the position of the women of his own race, believing as he does that a nation never rises above the standard of its womanhood.

Mr. Lamsa is a native of Kurdistan, was educated in part at Constantinople and is now studying theology in this state.

His sketch is interesting and instructive and has the added advantage of being first hand knowledge.

SNOW AND HEAVY WIND

SWEEEPING OVER TRAIL

Cochran, Ont., Jan. 10.—Indian Runner from Camp on Abitibi river Trail, Jan. 10, report 45 miles North of Chute—A serious mishap may have occurred to the sled party carrying the three American balloonists who were forced to land near Moose factory, if they have attempted to reach Cochran and the railroad by the Abitibi River trail. The Abitibi, a river as wide as the Ohio and as full of rapids as the Niagara, is covered with about six inches of treacherous ice about eight inches of slush and more than a foot of snow.

Five times during the day a news paper party has broken through the ice, but in each instance the 12-foot Peterborough toboggan and the snowshoes worn by the Indian guides and correspondent, saved them from being swept beneath the ice. The trail leading north is absolutely unbroken and the dense north woods on either side of the river cannot be penetrated more than 100 feet on either side.

The party is fully 30 miles south of New Post, the only place of habitation between Chute and Moose factory. It is doubtful whether the remainder of the trip to New Post can be made unless a freeze that will convert the slush of the river to solid ice and solid going occurs. Added to the other dangers, a heavy snowfall and high wind has started and is tearing its way through the dense woods in a sickening way last night.

During the early evening the tent, stretched over a bed of balsam boughs, has been torn from its fastenings.

houses are to be installed as directed by the Department and are to be maintained by the company.

FOCH TELLS OF ENTRANCE OF AMERICA INTO WAR

(Communicated)

Paris, Jan. 10.—Marshal Foch related the dramatic and picturesque events of the entrance of the United States into the war at a meeting of the "French American Welfare," maintained here by the National Catholic Welfare Council, yesterday. He praised the American principle in aiding the allies when "from victory she could expect only moral satisfaction—any advancement of the United States situation in the world was problematical."

Marshal Foch described the scene when General Pershing "came to my headquarters at Clermont de Oise to tell me in those dark days: 'We are at your disposal. I found my soldiers; you can make use of us to the utmost; throw us into the battle, to the same way from his headquarters in Versailles, General Bliss, then the American chief of staff, said to me: 'We are here to aid you, as you see fit.'"

PITTSBURGH CHURCHERS TO WORSHIP BY WIRELESS

(Communicated)

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 10.—Persons residing within 800 miles of Pittsburgh, and having wireless telephone receivers, were able to "listen in" on services at the Cavalry Protestant Episcopal Church here yesterday. A manufacturing concern, handling radio telephone equipment had installed transmitting apparatus at the church.

The company has been advised by many amateur operators that they enjoyed music and sermon delivered at the church last Sunday and transmitted on the wireless telephone. Comet, Headed for Earth, is Due in June, Warns Scientist

London, Jan. 10.—Warning is issued by Dr. Andrew Crommelin, the eminent astronomer and assistant at Greenwich Observatory, of possible danger to the earth from the comet Ponswinnecke next June. This interstellar wanderer is one of the Jovian comets, and its orbit has been pushed nearer the earth on each of its appearances, due to the influence of Jupiter, on its movement.

It makes its appearance every 5,800 years and its pathway extends about the sun in an elliptic orbit to the point where Jupiter performs his revolutions. Astronomers had been expecting its appearance in July this year, but Professor Crommelin says it will arrive in June. It is now traveling a terrific speed head-on for the earth.

"If the actual date of the intersection of the paths of the earth and the comet were June 20, there would be a collision," says Dr. Crommelin. "The world wouldn't be wiped out, but there would be the biggest shower of meteors ever seen, with possible damage to property and life."

As it is, Dr. Crommelin thinks the chances of a collision are not great. He smiles at the belief of the laymen that the collision of a comet and the earth would be fatal to the earth. Scientists have pointed out for earth. Scientists have pointed out for by of burning gases, and, while a collision might cause tremendous atmospheric disturbance, yet a comet in a mass could not penetrate the earth's atmosphere.

"People should be happy. They may dance, as David danced before the harp. A good play may be just as a religious as a sermon."

"HOLD U. S. SEAMEN"

IS BENSON SLOGAN

Washington, Jan. 10.—With victory over the great American merchant marine fleet of the United States Shipping Board tied up because of the conditions now prevailing in the ocean-carrying trade, Rear Admiral Benson, chairman of the board, today issued an appeal to ship owners and operators not to employ cheap foreign labor, but to continue the employment of American seamen. He pointed out that the expense of repairs was one of the largest items to be contended with, and that it would be cheaper in the long run to provide regular employment for all American sea workers and make these repairs than it would be to employ cheap labor.

"Collect American seamen in American ships, rather than drive him from the sea by yielding to the temptation of minor savings in the wage scale," is the slogan that he has handed to the shipping industry.

It is pointed out that the slump in ocean-carrying trade has also affected about 700 vessels, while Norway and Japan are hard hit, and that the peak load of the depression will not be reached for several months.

In this connection the approaching convention here on January 20, of the National Merchant Marine Association will be of unusual interest. During the two days' session there will be discussion of remedies for the depression in shipping and the formulating of a programme for shipping upon which all foreign trade interests can unite.

Shipping measures introduced into Congress by Representative George W. Edwards, of Philadelphia, will also be discussed, especially the matter of merchant marine insurance and the subject of the application of the prohibition amendments to the passenger trade on the high seas.

141 "Hoboes" Attend Service in

Trinity Church, New York

New York, Jan. 10.—After services had started yesterday morning at historic Trinity Church, Broadway and Wall street, 141 unemployed men, members of the "Hoboes' Union," entered the church and filled up the front pews. The men filled quietly into the edifice during a prayer and took their places without any commotion, in the pews designated by the sexton.

Urban J. Ledoux, an official of the Hoboes' Union, announced yesterday that 500 jobless men would attend the services yesterday, but 141 were all he could muster that morning on the Bowery, the starting point of the parade.

The marchers did not appear dejected by their enforced idleness, many of them singing lively tunes as they wended their way through the streets from the Bowery. Many of the men were well clad. Most of them were provided with overcoats, while a few had army blankets draped over their shoulders. Thirteen placards, attesting want of food, rain and shelter, were interspersed through the line of march.

With the exception of ten men, who apparently had passed their fiftieth year, the personnel of the marchers was made up of young men.

RICHMOND THEATRE

The attraction at the Richmond Theatre, beginning today, will be "Dinty," in which young Wesley Barry makes his bow to the picture loving public in his first actual starring vehicle, directed by Marshall Neilan, who also wrote the story himself.

Advance reports state that the freckle-faced youngster of "Daddy Long Legs," "Don't Ever Marry," and "Go Get It" has in this latest film made the finest performance of his brief but brilliant career.

At any rate, Mr. Neilan has surrounded Wesley Barry with an excellent cast of players, including such favorites as Colleen Moore, J. Barney Sherry, Marjorie Daw, Pat O'Malley, Noah Beery, Tom Wilson and Newton Hall.

The balance of the cast includes Walter Chung, a young Chinaman, and Aaron Mitchell, a pickaninny, who plays the part of Barry's chums in "Dinty."

INGOMAR THEATRE

Buck Jones, the daring William Fox cowboy, will be the star at the Ingomar Theatre today in a lively Western story, called "Sunset Sprague," written by Clyde C. Westover.

Jones is celebrated as a rider with out a superior on the screen or on the range.

"Sunset Sprague" is a romantic tale of the Western plains, Jones, in the title role, sets a thrilling pace and keeps his enemies on the jump until the end.

Episode II of "The Son of Tarzan" "Out of the Lion's Jaws," will also be shown.

CHARGE ROADS USE FUNDS IN LABOR WAR

ing "scooted" so that profitable repairs may be realized for certain equipment companies, which are controlled by the same financial interests which control the railroads.

The cost of locomotive repair work when done by these outside giants, the petition recites costs the railroads on an average of four times as much as it costs in their own shops. Repair work on locomotives which under ordinary circumstances could be done in railroad shops at a cost of from $4,000 to $5,000 amounts to approximately $20,000 when done by these private concerns. Since the locomotive repair work of the entire transportation system of the country amounts to between $500,000,000 and $600,000,000 annually, the effect, it is charged, is to burden the general public with an excess charge of at least $500,000,000 a year.

The same condition, it is alleged, exists with respect to the freight car repair work. More than 50,000 freight cars of various types already have been assigned for repair. The excess paid by the railroads for the repair of these cars by private companies amounts to at least $600 a car, it is stated.

Although granting that the Interstate Commerce Commission has no jurisdiction in a labor case, the petition sets forth that an investigation is imperative to prevent railroad companies from taking funds paid by the public for effective transportation machinery and using them illegitimately.

LIQUOR LICENSES TO BE CUT IN TWO

Thousands of dealers in New York and other big cities will be denied licenses to traffic in liquor during 1921 according to present plans of Federal Prohibition Commissioner John F. Kramer to squeeze the U. S. more nearly bone dry this year. "The number of wholesale licenses now outstanding will be arbitrary reduced more than 50 per cent," he said.

Bootleggers last year managed to obtain possession of a large part of the 28,000,000 gallons of liquor withdrawn from bonded warehouses under the permit system, according to prohibition officials. They now plan to make the permit system more nearly perfect.

Killen and Burnett W. Tanner, took place at 10 o'clock yesterday morning from Humphrey's chapel, at Rockville. The services were conducted by the Rev. P. Rowland Wagner, and burial was in Rockville Union cemetery.

CARDINAL PROPOSES BABE RUTH MEMORIAL

New York, Jan. 10.—Cardinal Gibbons sent a messenger to the directors of the K. of C. for the support of the 800,000 members of the lodge for a $2,000,000 memorial to Babe Ruth at St. Mary's Industrial School in Baltimore.

Brother Paul, head of the Xavierian Brothers in charge of the school, said that wealthy citizens of Baltimore had asked the cardinal for permission to inaugurate a fund for a memorial cathedral in honor of the cardinal, work to begin at once. But his eminence declined, saying that this memorial to Babe Ruth would also be a memorial to him.

Kisses His Wife Every Morning

Says It's Great

Hagerstown, Md., Jan. 10.—Fred Gallion, an ironworker of this city, has tested the plan of kissing his wife every morning before he leaves home, and finds that it makes him a happier man throughout the day. Gallion recommends this plan to all married couples with the assurance that it will bring many couples closer together, and thereby lessen the number of divorces.

Gallion made a resolution on New Year's Day that he would kiss his wife each morning hereafter. He says it is working like a charm.

Alexandria Laundry, Inc.Look Out for Rheumatism

As Winter Approaches

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infects the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite prevalent. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface.

One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief.

Begin taking S.S.S. today and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, with-out charge. Address: Chief Medical Advisor, 151 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Arrest Pastor Denzel For Violation of Mann Act
Passaic, N. J., Jan. 10.—The Rev. Cornelius Denzel, former pastor of the First Netherlands Reformed Church here, was arrested yesterday on a Federal warrant charging violation of the Mann act as the result of the alleged elopement of the churchman with Miss Trina Hannenberg, of this city, a former member of the church, during which it was charged they visited New York, Buffalo and other places.

Two civil actions have been brought against the Rev. Mr. Denzel by Miss Hannenberg and her parents as a result of the elopement.

The denunciation was arrested at his home by United States Marshal Albert E. Egan, of Newark. A large crowd gathered in front of the Denzel home as he emerged with the sheriff, followed closely by two sons, Richard and Cornelius, Jr., and a daughter, Mrs. William Donkersloot. Denzel showed no signs of depression, but refused to answer questions asked by newspaper men. He was escorted in a motor car to a back as he entered an automobile, which took him to Patterson for arraignment before United States Commissioner Delaney.

UNIVERSITY DOCTOR GIVES "FLU" WARNING
Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 10.—Sporadic outbreaks of the influenza epidemic throughout the South in the past few days has given physicians some cause for alarm and is responsible for the taking of precautionary measures to guard against the disease.

While doctors generally do not believe that there will be a severe recurrence of the plague this year, they feel that the observance of simple health rules by citizens will go far toward the elimination of the disease during the winter months.

Those "don'ts" were given out yesterday by Dr. J. N. Greear, house physician of the University of Virginia Hospital:

"Don't get overheated and sit in a draft."
"Avoid crowds, close rooms and irregular habits in eating and sleeping."
"Avoid alcohol in all forms. (This is not intended as a slap at the Federal amendment.)"

"Take plenty of exercise, but don't get wet feet."
"At the first symptom of a cold, use a simple alkaline solution as a gargle and nasal douche."

"If your cold symptoms do not disappear after twenty-four hours of home treatment, consult a physician."

RESULT SPROVED GREAT SURPRISE

Mrs. Hughes Says She is Praising Tanlac to Everybody—Restored Her Health

"Although it has been several months since Tanlac restored my health and built me up so wonderfully I am still feeling fine," said Mrs. P. T. Hughes, Durand, Va.

"For several weeks I had indigestion so bad that everything I ate soured and I could not get any rest. I could hardly breathe, and I had such terrible pains around my heart I seemed that I would go distracted. My appetite failed completely, even what little I forced down seemed to burn my stomach like a coal of fire. I got so weak I couldn't do my housework and would have to sit down and rest every time I moved around the least bit. I became alarmed over my condition and began trying medicine after medicine, but nothing helped me until I got Tanlac."

"It wasn't long before I could eat just like I did before I got sick, and I could eat anything I wanted without suffering the least bit from indigestion."

"I picked up in strength rapidly and was soon feeling so well and strong that my housework was just like play. Ever since then I have praised Tanlac and I am going to take it again if I ever need medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar W. W. Jr., and good drug stores everywhere.

CROWD AT MASTICE TO GREET AIRMEN

whose military service, both the army and the navy.

It is considered an attack, the fact that it is made by one officer upon another only aggravates the offense. An officer attacking a fellow officer is liable to court-martial proceedings. Whether that kind of a court will grow out of the court of inquiry into the whole expedition or out of the special court which may be asked for by Lieut. Farrell will not be known until further developments.

The graphic account of the hazardous voyage, of the sufferings and heroism of all the party, as written by Lieut. Kizer, was read with avidity by navy officers, as well as by the general public in Washington. Its entire lack of personalities and adherence to history as all three of the sailing men made it commendable to all officials.

It is not likely that the advance publication of the stirring accounts of the trip written by Lieut. Kizer and Lieut. Hinton in letters to Miss Fawcett and Mrs. Hinton or any other communications to friends and relatives of the balloonists can be made the subject of criticism by the Navy Department. The fleet had not received, and have not yet, so far as known, received the instructions from the Secretary of the Navy that the official reports should be made to the department before giving out anything for publication.

The Ministry of Finance alone lost 2,290,000 francs through swindles and forgeries.

GUARDS ON ROOD SHIPS FOR CORK

A path to the auto driveway was cleared and police escorted the Lord Mayor to his auto.

During the short trip from the station to his hotel, O'Callaghan's automobile was followed by a procession that waved Sinn Féin and American flags.

Crowds gathered before the hotel and O'Callaghan, responding to their calls, appeared on a balcony. He spoke of his trip from Cork as a stowaway, expressed appreciation for the welcome accorded him, and said he probably would remain in America several months.

"We don't want home rule; we want freedom," the Lord Mayor declared.

He added that home rule might change conditions for a while. The Irish people would accept it with a consistent policy to see what would become of it before they did anything definite.

Mr. Boland announced last night that the Lord Mayor would not appear for public speaking until after he had testified in Washington before the Committee of One Hundred investigating the Irish question.

O'Callaghan, he said, would remain in New York several days preparing evidence. He intends placing on exhibit with the committee, and probably would leave for Washington the latter part of the week.

Rival Official Marooned While City Lays Forbidden Car Track

Detroit, Jan. 10.—Guarded by about 200 city policemen, 100 laborers employed by the city early yesterday morning laid tracks of Detroit's new municipal street railway across tracks of the Detroit United Railway Company at St. Jean and Mack avenues, after Circuit Judge Harry J. Dingeman had issued an injunction restraining the city from crossing the tracks.

While the work was being accomplished E. J. Burdick, assistant general manager of the Detroit United Railway, who had in his pocket the restraining order, was a virtual prisoner on Belle Isle, due to his being taken to the park by the police.

When the work of crossing the Detroit-United Railway tracks was begun Burdick is said to have approached Joseph S. Goodwin, manager of the municipal system, and demanded that the work be halted. It was about to produce the injunction, it is said, when he was taken into custody by a policeman and taken in a patrol wagon across the Belle Isle drawbridge to the island for investigation on a charge of disturbing the peace. He was soon liberated, but was unable to return to the city because the tender of the drawbridge would not close the span. The bridge had been closed to permit the patrol wagon to cross and later to permit the wagon to return to the city after Burdick had been left at the island police station. Burdick was unable to cross until daylight (the Belle Isle bridge is closed to all except police traffic at midnight each night).

Burdick, in a statement today, declared contempt of court proceedings would be started today if the company against the city and that he intended to file a personal suit against the city for false arrest. The police admitted Burdick had been taken to the island station for investigation.

The break between the city and the Detroit United Railway Company followed a legal fight carried on between the city and company since last April, when Detroit voters at a regular election authorized the city to expend $15,000,000 in the construction of a municipal street railway system.

Harding Resigns Senate Seat; Willis Will Succeed Him

Marion, Ohio, Jan. 10.—President-elect Harding resigned Saturday as United States senator from Ohio, forwarding his letter of resignation to Columbus for action of the newly elected Republican governor, Harry L. Davis, who assumes office today.

The move was in accordance with the President-elect's announced purpose to give up his Senate seat as soon as a change in the State administration would admit the appointment of a Republican successor. Governor-elect Davis has indicated that Frank B. Willis, elected senator for the term beginning next March, would be named to fill the vacancy.

Following the wishes of Mr. Willis, Mr. Harding made January 15 the effective date of his resignation. By giving up his senatorial office, then the President-elect will be permitted to devote the last six weeks before his inauguration wholly to the preparation for the duties of his administration.

Dr. DeCarm Gratiified

At President's Condition, Washington, Jan. 10.—Dr. Francis X. DeCarm, the Philadelphia neurologist who was called for consultation during the early stages of President Wilson's illness, visited the White House yesterday for the first time in two months and spent some time with Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, the President's personal physician.

Dr. Grayson said that no significance was attached to Dr. DeCarm's visit; it merely being made, he said, in accordance with the agreement reached several months ago that the Philadelphia specialist should come to Washington occasionally for consultation.

Dr. DeCarm was said by Dr. Grayson to have expressed himself as "immediately gratified" over the condition of the President.

Philadelphia, Jan. 10.—Dr. Francis X. DeCarm, the neurologist, upon his return last night from Washington, said that he had found President Wilson "greatly improved."

"I have not seen the President looking so well since he has been ill," added the doctor. "His condition is very satisfactory."

WIFE STICKS TO PURPOSE

Detroit, Jan. 10.—At the end of her forty-first day of confinement, a woman in an effort to secure her husband to her creed of Christianity, Mrs. S. J. Harrison, last night was still adamant in her determination to refuse all food until she had achieved her purpose. Her husband, Ernest Harrison, was likewise steadfast. He has obtained a nurse to remain constantly at her bedside. Three meals a day are offered to her. He has engaged a physician to attend her, has telegraphed for her personal minister and has engaged a lawyer to defend any attempt which might be made to incarcerate him in case of her death.

"She can starve if she wants to," he said last night. "I am not going to do anything further—and I most certainly am not going to give up my poultry business here to become a recluse. That's final."

At the little home on North Collett Street, Mrs. Harrison reclines in a bedridden room, propped almost to a sitting position by a score of pillows. She clutches to her as she talks to the crowds of friends, relatives and curious ones who throng the house day and night.

Beyond a slight paleness and a faded look about the eyes, there is no difference, friends say, between her appearance now and on Nov. 29, the day she began her fast. She has no perceptible loss of weight, she claims. Her husband says she has lost seventy pounds.

Physicians who have examined her assert that her pulse and nervous system are normal.

WOLF OF WALL STREET APPEALS PRISON SENTENCE

New York, Jan. 10.—Federal Judge Manton yesterday reserved decision in habeas corpus proceedings instituted by David Lamar, "Wolf of Wall Street," to save himself from having to serve a year in the penitentiary at Trenton, N. J.

Lamar, while serving a two year sentence in the Federal prison at Atlanta, was brought here and convicted of conspiracy to restrain foreign trade and commerce by inciting strikes in munition plants and causing other labor disputes. His attorney contended yesterday that the district court has no right to try him while a convict.

Court Order Permits Guardian To Buy Boy an Artificial Leg

White Plains, Jan. 10.—Surrogate George A. Slater of White Plains has signed many unusual orders involving various estates, but the oddest one is his special decision to Harold R. Brun, age of White Plains to purchase an artificial leg for his infant son, Harold R. Brunage, Jr.

The boy, according to the petition filed by his guardian, was run over by a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train and his right leg was cut off. The father settled with the company for $275, and now Surrogate Slater allows him to pay $100 to A. C. Cridell for an artificial leg for the boy.

70,000 SICILIANS EAGER TO SAIL FOR AMERICA

Palermo, Sicily, Jan. 10.—From the island of Sicily alone 70,000 emigrants are waiting to sail for America, mostly for New York. This vast army of emigrants fills the port, waits idly in the country, and is excited by the prospect of their voyage to "The Land of Gold" to do any work, though the island badly needs men to cultivate it.

The news that they will be excluded from America by the new Emigration law does not disturb them. All these people have the American consular visa and feel sure that they will be allowed to land, since Uncle Sam has taken the lead in regulating their passports. Speculators are getting all they can out of them, taking bribes for putting them on board before less fortunate rivals who cannot pay graft.

Since January, 1920, no less than 350,000 emigrants have left Italy and Sicily, chiefly for America. Of the 110,000 who sailed for New York, Boston and other American ports, 51 per cent left last March and 45 per cent last January. The lowest number is registered for September, when it dropped to 18 per cent, and July, when it was 15 per cent, of the whole. In those months, the men waited at home to help their women folk, who carry on farm work during their absence, to gather in harvests of grain and wine.

As only three ships a month leave Palermo for America, it will take a long time for the 70,000 to get off. In fact, most of them are doomed to disappointment, unless the Italian Government can prevail upon Uncle Sam to relax emigration laws for their benefit. Many have learned to read and write on purpose to be allowed to land in New York.

FATHER OF 34 DELUGED WITH PRAISE AND CENSURE

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 10.—Since wide publicity was given to the fact that Reuben Bland, of Robersonville, Beaufort county, was the proud father of 34 children, he and Mrs. Bland have been deluged with letters from persons all over the United States and Canada.

The letters are from both women and men. A man in Ohio wrote: "I read the story about your large family and to my wife. There's a family who ought to be given a medal. I told her, 'There's a man who ought to be honored.'"

A writer in Oregon sent this: "Reuben Bland, I am thinking. You are quite a sissy man. To your health I am drinking. You have done what few men can."
